Jaguar Drivers Club of South Australia
Privacy Policy

At JDCSA we respect the privacy of every individual who visits our website.

This privacy statement provides notice of the standards and terms under which we protect the privacy of information supplied by visitors to our website.

This policy may change from time to time, so please check back periodically to review this information.

JDCSA receives data about its website visitors only when such information is provided voluntarily, such as when a visitor requests information or a quote, makes a purchase or sends us an e-mail.

When you provide personally identifiable information to us through our website, it will be used only to fulfil your specific request. We do reserve the right, at our discretion, to send you information about specials or services. We will not, however, sell or trade your personally identifiable information unless we are authorized or legally required to do so.

JDCSA takes all reasonable steps to ensure your information remains secure, and to prevent unauthorised access to your information. We use our best efforts to ensure that information received via this website remains secure within our systems, however users should be aware that there are inherent risks in transmitting information across the Internet. We are not responsible for events arising from unauthorised access to your personal information.

The JDCSA website does not use cookies to automatically gather information about you when you visit our website.

Due care and diligence is used in the preparation of The Classic Marque and this Website, but no responsibility or liability is accepted for any mistake, misprint, omission or typographical error. No warranty or representation as to the truth, accuracy or sufficiency of photographs or statements in advertisements is given.

Opinions expressed in Classic Marque are not necessarily those of the clubs, their committees, their members or the Editor.