1.1 Interpretation

(1) In these rules—
Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 1981.
Present—
(a) At a management committee meeting, see rule 5.6(6); or
(b) At a general meeting, see rule 6.7(2).
(2) A word or expression that is not defined in these model rules, but is defined in the Act has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.
(3) Family means a mother, father (or another in a parenting role) with at least one child under 18 years of age.
Electronic Communications means 'Written notice' or 'give notice' includes notice provided electronically (including email or any other method permitted by law).

1.2 Name

The name of the incorporated association is Kingaroy Rugby League Football Club, Juniors & Seniors Incorporated.

2. Objects and Powers

2.1 Objects

The objects of the association are—
(1) To promote and advance the sport of Rugby League amongst participants of all ages, genders, cultures and abilities;
(2) To establish and enter teams in Rugby League competitions at all levels;
(3) To encourage positive behaviour, enthusiasm & professionalism in our members;
(4) To recognise the rules & requirements of Queensland Rugby League in all our activities and competitions; and
(5) To attract, develop and retain club volunteers.

2.2 Powers

(1) The association has the powers of an individual.
(2) The association may, for example—
(a) Enter into contracts;
(b) Acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property;
(c) Make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and
(d) Do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs.
(3) The association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the association.

3. Membership

3.1 Classes of members

(1) The membership of the association consists of ordinary members, in any of the following classes of members—

	Membership Category	Definition	Voting Rights At General Meeting
(a)	Junior Player Member	A person under 18 years of age registered to play Rugby League.	No
(b)	Parent / Carer Membership	A nominated person from each family with Junior Player Members. Only one vote per family (see definitions), however vote is transferable to any person over 18 within the family.	Yes
(c)	Junior Affiliate Member	Any person under 18 who volunteers for the organisation but is not eligible for another category of membership.	No

(g)	Honorary Member	Person or organisation invited to membership by the management committee in the interest of Rugby League for such a period as may be deemed appropriate and appointed according to the current By-Laws.	No

3.2 Membership limitations

(1) The number of ordinary members is unlimited.

3.3 New membership

(1) An applicant for membership of the association must be proposed by 1 member of the association (the proposer) and seconded by another member (the seconder).

(2) An application for membership must be—

(a) In writing;

(b) Signed by the applicant and the applicants proposer and seconder; and

(c) In the form decided by the management committee.

(3) The association may provide notices under this section electronically, where permitted by law.

3.4 Membership fees

(1) The membership fee for each ordinary membership and for each other class of membership —

(a) Is the amount decided by the management committee from time to time at a meeting; and

(b) Is payable when, and in the way, the management committee decides.

3.5 Admission and rejection of new members

(1) The management committee must consider an application for membership at the next committee meeting held after it receives—

(a) The application for membership; and

(b) The appropriate membership fee for the application.

(2) The management committee must ensure that, as soon as possible after the person applies to become a member of the association, and before the management committee considers the persons application, the person is advised—

(a) Whether or not the association has public liability insurance; and

(b) If the association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.

(3) The management committee must decide at the meeting whether to accept or reject the application.

(4) If a majority of the members of the management committee present at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member for the class of membership applied for.

(5) The secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after the management committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

(6) The association may provide notices under this section electronically, where permitted by law.

3.6 When membership ends

(1) A member may resign from the association by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.

(2) The resignation takes effect at—

(a) The time the notice is received by the secretary; or

(b) If a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.

(3) The management committee may terminate a members membership if the member—

(a) Is convicted of an indictable offence;

(b) Does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules;

(c) Has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months; or

(d) Conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the association.

(4) Before the management committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.

(5) If, after considering all representations made by the member, the management committee decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.

3.7 Appeal against rejection or termination of membership

(1) A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.

(2) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.

(3) If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 1 month after receiving the notice, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.

(4) The association may provide notices under this section electronically, where permitted by law.

3.8 General meeting to decide appeal

(1) The general meeting to decide an appeal must be held within 3 months after the secretary receives the notice of intention to appeal.

(2) At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.

(3) Also, the management committee and the members of the committee who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.

(4) An appeal must be decided by a majority vote of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting.
(5) If a person whose application for membership has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within 1 month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the membership fee paid by the person.

3.9 Register of members

(1) The management committee must keep a register of members of the association.
(2) The register must include the following particulars for each member—
(a) The full name of the member;
(b) The postal or residential address of the member;
(c) The date of admission as a member;
(d) The date of death or time of resignation of the member;
(e) Details about the termination or reinstatement of membership; and
(f) Any other particulars the management committee or the members at a general meeting decide.
(3) The register must be open for inspection by members of the association at all reasonable times.
(4) A member must contact the secretary to arrange an inspection of the register.
(5) However, the management committee may, on the application of a member of the association, withhold information about the member (other than the members full name) from the register available for inspection if the management committee has reasonable grounds for believing the disclosure of the information would put the member at risk of harm.
(6) The association must maintain the register of members in accordance with all applicable privacy obligations under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 (Qld), including any amendments, and must ensure that personal information recorded in the register is collected, stored, accessed, and disclosed only in compliance with those requirements.
(7) The management committee must take reasonable steps to protect the personal information of members contained in the register, including implementing safeguards against unauthorised access, misuse, or disclosure, consistent with the privacy requirements under the Act and any subsequent legislative amendments.

3.10 Prohibition on use of information on register of members

(1) A member of the association must not—
(a) use information obtained from the register of members of the association to contact, or send material to, another member of the association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes; or
(b) Disclose information obtained from the register to someone else, knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact, or send material to, another member of the association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes.
(2) Sub rule (1) does not apply if the use or disclosure of the information is approved by the association.

3.11 Grievance procedure

(1) This grievance procedure applies to disputes between
(a) a member and another member;
(b) a member and the management committee;
(c) a member and the club.
(2) The parties to a dispute shall attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days of the dispute coming to the attention of each party.
(3) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days, the parties shall within a further ten days
(a) notify the management committee of the dispute; and

(b) agree to or request the appointment of a mediator; and
(c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.

(4) The mediator may be:
(a) a person or external agency chosen by agreement between the parties; or
(b) in the absence of agreement:
i. if the dispute is between a member and another member, a person appointed by the management committee; or
ii. if the dispute is between a member and the management committee or the club, a suitable external agency.

(5) A mediator may be a member or former member of the club or another person but in any case, must not be a person who:
(a) has a personal interest in the dispute; or
(b) is biased against, or in favour of, any party.

(6) The mediator to the dispute, in conducting the mediation, must ensure that natural justice is afforded to the parties throughout the mediation process.

(7) If the mediation process does not resolve the dispute, the management committee may take whatever steps it considers appropriate in the best interests of the club and the members concerned.

(8) A member may appoint another person to act on their behalf during a grievance procedure, provided that no party is entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner at mediation.

(9) This procedure does not apply to any appeal by a member against a decision made in accordance with the disciplinary procedure outlined in clause 3.5.

(10) A member must not initiate a grievance procedure in relation to a matter that is the subject of a disciplinary procedure until the disciplinary procedure has been completed.

(11) If a member has initiated a grievance procedure in relation to a dispute between the member and the management committee or the club, the club must not take disciplinary action against any of the following people in relation to the matter which is the subject of the grievance procedure until the grievance procedure has been completed:
(a) the member who initiated the grievance procedure; or
(b) a person appointed to act on behalf of the member who initiated the grievance procedure under clause 3.11.8

(12) The management committee may prescribe additional grievance procedures, which are consistent with this constitution, in the club's bylaws.

4. Company Secretary

4.1 Appointment or election of secretary

(1) The secretary must be an individual residing in Queensland, or in another State but not more than 65km from the Queensland border, who is—
(a) A member of the association elected by the association as secretary; or
(b) Any of the following persons appointed by the management committee as secretary—
(i) A member of the associations management committee;
(ii) Another member of the association;
(iii) Another person.

(2) If the association has not elected an interim officer as secretary for the association before its incorporation, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after incorporation.

(3) If a vacancy happens in the office of secretary, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.

(4) If the management committee appoints a person mentioned in sub rule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary, other than to fill a casual vacancy on the management committee, the person does not become a member of the management committee.
(5) However, if the management committee appoints a person mentioned in sub rule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary to fill a casual vacancy on the management committee, the person becomes a member of the management committee.
(6) If the management committee appoints a person mentioned in sub rule (1)(b)(iii) as secretary, the person does not become a member of the management committee.
(7) In this rule— casual vacancy, on a management committee, means a vacancy that happens when an elected member of the management committee resigns, dies or otherwise stops holding office.

4.2 Removal of secretary

(1) The management committee of the association may at any time remove a person appointed by the committee as the secretary.
(2) If the management committee removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in rule 4(1)(b)(i), the person remains a member of the management committee.
(3) If the management committee removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in rule 4(1)(b)(ii) and who has been appointed to a casual vacancy on the management committee under rule 4(5), the person remains a member of the management committee.

4.3 Functions of secretary

The secretary's functions include, but are not limited to—

(a) Calling meetings of the association, including preparing notices of a meeting and of the business to be conducted at the meeting in consultation with the president of the association;
(b) Keeping minutes of each meeting;
(c) Keeping copies of all correspondence and other documents relating to the association; and
(d) Maintaining the register of members of the association.
(e) May issue notices, correspondence, and documents to members electronically where permitted by law.

5. Committee

5.1 Membership of management committee

(1) The executive management committee of the association consists of a president, secretary and treasurer. The management committee shall consist of any other members the association members elect at an annual general meeting or management committee meeting. For the purposes of this constitution, any reference to the management committee shall include both the executive management committee and the other elected members of the management committee.
(2) A member of the management committee, other than a secretary appointed by the management committee under rule 4(1)(b)(iii), must be a member of the association.
(3) At each annual general meeting of the association, the members of the management committee must retire from office, but are eligible, on nomination, for re-election.
(4) A member of the association may be appointed to a casual vacancy on the management committee under rule 5.4.
(5) A maximum of two family members may serve on the management committee at one time.

5.2 Electing the management committee

(1) A member of the management committee may only be elected as follows—

(a) Any 2 members of the association may nominate another member (the candidate) to serve as a member of the management committee;
(b) The nomination must be—
(i) In writing;

(ii) Signed by the candidate and the members who nominated him or her; and

(iii) Given to the secretary at least 14 days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to be held;

(c) Each member of the association present and eligible to vote at the annual general meeting may vote for 1 candidate for each vacant position on the management committee;

(d) If, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.

(e) Where the management committee determines that a particular role or position is more suitably performed by more than one person, more than one candidate may be elected or appointed to that role or position, as determined by the management committee.

(f) Clause (d) does not apply to the positions of President, Secretary or Treasurer, each of which shall be held by one person only.

(2) A person may be a candidate only if the person -

(a) Is an adult; and

(b) Is not ineligible to be elected as a member under section 61A of the Act.

(3) A list of the candidates' names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate, must be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or usual place of meeting of the association for at least 7 days immediately preceding the annual general meeting.

(4) If required by the management committee, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.

(5) The management committee must ensure that, before a candidate is elected as a member of the management committee, the candidate is advised—

(a) Whether or not the association has public liability insurance; and

(b) If the association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.

(6) At an annual general meeting, all management committee positions shall be declared vacant, and an election shall be held for all positions by eligible voting members present at the annual general meeting.

(7) The election of members to positions declared vacant shall be conducted by a neutral third party nominated by the outgoing management committee. The neutral third party must not be nominated for, or hold, any management committee position and must have no voting interest in the outcome of the election. The neutral third party shall chair the election and conduct the meeting for the purpose of calling for and announcing nominations, overseeing the voting process and announcing the results.

(8) Members elected to positions declared vacant shall hold office for a term of one year, subject to these rules.

5.3 Resignation, removal or vacation of office of management committee member

(1) A member of the management committee may resign from the committee by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.

(2) The resignation takes effect at—

(a) The time the notice is received by the secretary; or

(b) If a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.

(3) A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the association if a majority of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.

(4) Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office, the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.

(5) A member has no right of appeal against the members removal from office under this rule.

(6) A member immediately vacates the office of member in the circumstances mentioned in section 64(2) of the Act.

5.4 Vacancies on management committee

(1) If a casual vacancy happens on the management committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another member of the association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.

(2) The continuing members of the management committee may act despite a casual vacancy on the management committee.
(3) However, if the number of committee members is less than the number fixed under rule 5.7(1) as a quorum of the management committee, the continuing members may act only to—
(a) Increase the number of management committee members to the number required for a quorum; or
(b) Call a general meeting of the association.

5.5 Functions of management committee

(1) Subject to these rules or a resolution of the members of the association carried at a general meeting, the management committee has the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the association.
(2) The management committee has authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any matter relating to the association on which the rules are silent, but any interpretation must have regard to the Act, including any regulation made under the Act.
Note—
The Act prevails if the associations rules are inconsistent with the Act—see section 1B of the Act.
(3) The management committee may exercise the powers of the association—
(a) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of amounts in a way the members of the association decide;
(b) To secure the amounts mentioned in paragraph (a) or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the association in any way, including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) charged upon the whole or part of the associations property, both present and future;
(c) To purchase, redeem or pay off any securities issued;
(d) To borrow amounts from members and pay interest on the amounts borrowed;
(e) To mortgage or charge the whole or part of its property;
(f) To issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the association;
(g) To provide and pay off any securities issued; and
(h) To invest in a way the members of the association may from time to time decide.
(4) For subrule (3)(d), the rate of interest must not be more than the current rate being charged for overdrawn accounts on money lent (regardless of the term of the loan) by—
(a) The financial institution for the association; or
(b) If there is more than 1 financial institution for the association—the financial institution nominated by the management committee.

5.6 Meetings of management committee

(1) Subject to this rule, the management committee may meet and conduct its proceedings as it considers appropriate.
(2) The management committee must meet monthly to exercise its functions, except in December, provided that it has otherwise met at least eleven (11) times during that financial year.
(3) The management committee must decide how a meeting is to be called.
(4) Notice of a meeting is to be given in the way decided by the management committee.
(5) The management committee may hold meetings, or permit a committee member to take part in its meetings, by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.
(6) A committee member who participates in the meeting as mentioned in sub rule (5) is taken to be present at the meeting.
(7) A question arising at a committee meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of members of the committee present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the question is decided in the negative.
(8) A member of the management committee must not vote on a question about a contract or proposed contract with the association if the member has an interest in the contract or proposed contract and, if the member does vote, the members vote must not be counted.

(9) The president is to preside as chairperson at a management committee meeting.
(10) If there is no president or if the president is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting, the members may choose 1 of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

5.7 Quorum for, and adjournment of, management committee meeting

(1) At a management committee meeting, more than 30% of the members elected to the committee as at the close of the last general meeting of the members form a quorum.
(2) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting called on the request of members of the committee, the meeting lapses.
(3) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting called other than on the request of the members of the committee—
(a) The meeting is to be adjourned for at least 1 day; and
(b) The members of the management committee who are present are to decide the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting.
(4) If, at an adjourned meeting mentioned in subrule (3), there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting lapses.

5.8 Special meeting of management committee

(1) If the secretary receives a written request signed by at least 33% of the members of the management committee, the secretary must call a special meeting of the committee by giving each member of the committee notice of the meeting within 14 days after the secretary receives the request.
(2) If the secretary is unable or unwilling to call the special meeting, the president must call the meeting.
(3) A request for a special meeting must state—
(a) Why the special meeting is called; and
(b) The business to be conducted at the meeting.
(4) A notice of a special meeting must state—
(a) The day, time and place of the meeting; and
(b) The business to be conducted at the meeting.
(5) A special meeting of the management committee must be held within 14 days after notice of the meeting is given to the members of the management committee.

5.9 Minutes of management committee meetings

(1) The secretary must ensure full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of each management committee meeting are entered in a minute book.
(2) The minutes of each management committee meeting shall be reviewed and confirmed as a true and correct at the following meeting. A motion to accept the minutes shall be moved and seconded by members who were present at the previous meeting, with the outcome recorded in the minutes. Ideally, the President should either move or second the motion to confirm the minutes.

5.10 Appointment of subcommittees

(1) The management committee may appoint a subcommittee consisting of members of the association considered appropriate by the committee to help with the conduct of the associations operations.
(2) A member of the subcommittee who is not a member of the management committee is not entitled to vote at a management committee meeting.
(3) A subcommittee may elect a chairperson of its meetings.
(4) If a chairperson is not elected, or if the chairperson is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a meeting, the members present may choose 1 of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
(5) A subcommittee may meet and adjourn as it considers appropriate.
(6) A question arising at a subcommittee meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the question is decided in the negative.

5.11 Acts not affected by defects or disqualifications

(1) An act performed by the management committee, a subcommittee or a person acting as a member of the management committee is taken to have been validly performed.
(2) Sub rule (1) applies even if the act was performed when—
(a) There was a defect in the appointment of a member of the management committee, subcommittee or person acting as a member of the management committee; or
(b) A management committee member, subcommittee member or person acting as a member of the management committee was disqualified from being a member.

5.12 Resolutions of management committee without meeting

(1) A written resolution signed by each member of the management committee is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a committee meeting that was properly called and held.
(2) A resolution mentioned in sub rule (1) may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by 1 or more members of the committee.
(3) A resolution may be distributed and returned electronically, provided the method complies with any requirements under the Act.

6. Meetings of members

6.1 Annual general meeting

Each annual general meeting must be held -
a) At least once each year: and
b) By 15 November or before the local league AGM, whichever comes first and in accordance with QRL Rules, Part 3.

6.2 Business to be conducted at annual general meeting of large incorporated associations and particular medium and small incorporated associations

(1) This rule applies only if the association is—
(a) A large incorporated association; or
(b) A medium incorporated association to which section 59 of the Act applies; or
(c) A small incorporated association to which section 59 of the Act applies.
(2) The following business must be conducted at each annual general meeting of the association—
(a) Receiving the association's financial statement, and audit report, for the last reportable financial year;
(b) Presenting the financial statement and audit report to the meeting for adoption;
(c) Electing members of the management committee;
(d) For a Large incorporated association—appointing an auditor or an accountant for the present financial year;
(e) For a medium incorporated association, or a small incorporated association, to which section 59 of the Act applies—appointing an auditor, an accountant or an approved person for the present financial year.

6.3 Business to be conducted at annual general meeting of other Medium incorporated associations

(1) This rule applies only if the association is a medium incorporated association to which section 59A of the Act applies.
(2) The following business must be conducted at each annual general meeting of the association—
(a) Receiving the association's financial statement, and signed statement, for the last reportable financial year;
(b) Presenting the financial statement and signed statement to the meeting for adoption;
(c) Electing members of the management committee; and
(d) Appointing an auditor, an accountant or an approved person for the present financial year.

6.4 Business to be conducted at annual general meeting of other small incorporated associations

(1) This rule applies only if the association is a small incorporated association to which section 59B of the Act applies.
(2) The following business must be conducted at each annual general meeting of the association—
(a) Receiving the association's financial statement, and signed statement, for the last reportable financial year;
(b) Presenting the financial statement and signed statement to the meeting for adoption; and
(c) Electing members of the management committee.

6.5 Notice of general meeting

(1) The secretary may call a general meeting of the association.
(2) The secretary must give at least 21 days notice of the meeting to each member of the association.
(3) If the secretary is unable or unwilling to call the meeting, the president must call the meeting.
(4) The management committee may decide the way in which the notice must be given.
(5) However, notice of the following meetings must be given in writing—
(a) A meeting called to hear and decide the appeal of a person against the management committee's decision—
(i) To reject the person's application for membership of the association; or
