

Benalla and District Junior Football Training in an Age Group Above

An invitation has been extended to the player listed below to train in an age group above for 2026.

By signing this agreement, the Player, Account Holder and Coaches agree to the following conditions:

1. Participation in training exercises is at the discretion of the Coaches of the higher age group. For example, there may be times when the player is requested to not participate in a particular activity. The player will not question this directive.
2. The Account Holder accepts responsibility should any injury be sustained during training and cannot hold B&DJF at fault.
3. The player must not disadvantage any of the registered players in the higher age group during training.
4. In accordance with W&DJFL by-laws, if the player is bottom age in their current season, they cannot fill-in on game day for the age group above even though they may be attending training.
