

We have not had much growth

Activity has been quiet during the holidays, as expected

Lastly, we have had to decline one request which looked odd (and we were unable to contact).
Most comments are community oriented. There were some negative comments re-reports, which were referred back to the school.