2017 Festive Luncheon

Guest Speaker: Mr Allan Gyngell AO FAIIA

Thursday 7 December, 2017: 12.00pm – 2.00pm at Supper Room, Melbourne Town Hall, 90-130 Swanston Street, Melbourne

AIIA Victoria invites members and their guests to celebrate the end of another very busy year of interesting and diverse events, and to mull over what the year ahead may bring.

There will be plenty of good cheer in a great location!

It has been a tumultuous year in international relations, and we are delighted that Allan Gyngell has accepted the invitation to join us. As AIIA’s new National President, we look forward to his reflections on 2017, and predictions for 2018.

Allan Gyngell AO FAIIA has recently taken up the position of National President of the AIIA. Allan is an honorary professor in the Australian National University’s College of Asia and the Pacific and author of the recently published acclaimed review of Australian foreign affairs, Fear of Abandonment: Australia in the World since 1942 (La Trobe University Press, 2017). Previous roles have included director-general of the Office of National Assessments, founding executive director of the Lowy Institute for International Policy, and senior advisor (International) to Prime Minister Paul Keating. He has held diplomatic postings in Washington, Singapore and Rangoon.

RSVP: TEL: (03) 9654 7271 or BOOK ONLINE: www.internationalaffairs.org.au/vic

Two-course luncheon with beverages served. Registration essential by 30 November

Members $85 / Non-members $100 / Student members (full) $30 – limited places available